Today's Flowers in the church

In loving memory of Vera. As the years go by (7) each day you are remembered as well as Stewart with loving memories. Loving husband Doug, Allison (daughter) and Damien, and grandchildren Benjamin and Luke.

Arranged by: Lesley Lamble

Bequest Thank You

We wish to thank the estate of John De Ravin for a generous bequest of which part has enabled us to install ceiling fans in the Fellowship and Foyer areas. Bequests such as this help us improve the church facilities for current and future members.

Congregational Outreach Projects 2016

We are pleased to announce that Applications for Congregational Outreach Projects for 2016 are now open and will close on Monday 18 April. Application forms and criteria are both available on the wiki at: <http://wiki.gwuc.org.au/gwuc/CopProjects2016>. If you are unable to access a form via the wiki, please feel free to drop into the Church Office. If you have any initial questions regarding Grant Application please feel free to contact Neil Peters.

Church Carpet - Please Be Careful Of A Trip Hazard

With all of the electrical work done in the church over the last month, which required the use of very heavy hoists and moving of all the pews, the church carpet has again stretched in some places causing some lumps and bumps throughout the area. Please be very careful when walking and carrying anything in the church until the carpet settles. We are also investigating a steam clean option to remove all of the food and coffee stains from the seats and carpet, and this will speed up the settling of the lumps. Any questions, please talk to Warren Greenwood.

Free Family Easter Event - Sunday 27 March at 4pm

Please join us at 4pm Easter Sunday on the church lawns. Activities include jumping castle, Easter egg hunt, egg and spoon races. A fun celebration of Easter and Neighbour Day. All welcome. Bring grandchildren. If you want to assist on the day please contact Alanee or Neil.
