Today's Flowers in the church

Arranged by: Lesley Lamble

Today - Interruption to Electricity Supply

United Energy has advised us that there will be an interruption to our Electricity Supply today, Sunday 1 May, from 8am till 4pm. Specifically this will affect 8am, 9.15am and 11am worship.

No power means no lights, no fridge usage, no food to be left in fridge, freezer to be left shut all day, no broadcast or recordings, no organ or electronic keyboard, no hot water for tea, coffee or washing, and no Club 2016.

Glen Waverley Secondary College Chaplaincy

Last week $2,500, being interest from the Glen Waverley Uniting Church Endowment Fund, was transferred to Glen Waverley Secondary College. This represents half our commitment in support of the school chaplaincy program which was agreed at a congregational meeting last year.

The principal, Gerard Schiller, has emailed saying "Your support for our chaplaincy program is greatly appreciated. Please pass on my heartfelt thanks to the Glen Waverley Uniting Church community." The current fundraising effort with the Walk on Saturday is supporting the other half of our commitment.

Neil Peters.

Welfare Special Project

Baby Emmanuel Harlem is expected as a new member of one of Welfare's well known local families. His birth is due around 16 June and he will have four siblings who are attending primary and secondary schools. The family's income is fully dependent on Centrelink.

Welfare Committee would appreciate your assistance in preparing for Emmanuel's needs and would appreciate your considering a special donation of money (for the purchase of special items), clothing and rugs (sized between new born and twelve months). For more details please see the notice in the Monthly Bulletin.

Dorothy Lockhart.

Christian Unity Ecumenical Celebration - Sunday 22 May

LET'S GO WALKING with Neil Peters

THANK YOU to all who walked with Neil
to all who sponsored him.

Thank you also to all who came along to encourage.

When this notice was written of course the walk had not happened.....but we are sure that the 20ks was completed.....so, today is the day to 'pay up'. Please see Faye Wagon or Jan Clear in the foyer after church. They will happily take your money! If not able to pay today please bring it to the office during the week, or place in the offering bowl in an envelope [labelled Neil's walk], next Sunday

Well done everyone!

The walkers deserve
this!
