Today's flowers are in loving memory of Joyce Chivers from her family.
Arranged by: Ruth Dayment

Personal Thank You

Neil would like to sincerely thank those who walked with him, promoted the event, created posters, provided refreshments and gave so generously to support the Walk for Chaplaincy. To date $4,184 has been raised which is truly amazing. Thank You.

Welfare Special Project

The box for gifts for Baby Emmanuel Harlem will be in the foyer from this Sunday.

Baby Emmanuel is expected as a new member of one of Welfare's well known local families. His birth is due around 16 June and he will have four siblings who are attending primary and secondary schools. The family's income is fully dependent on Centrelink.

Welfare Committee would appreciate your assistance in preparing for Emmanuel's needs and would appreciate your considering a special donation of money (for the purchase of special items), clothing and rugs (sized between new born and twelve months). For more details please see the notice in the Monthly Bulletin.
