Mindfulness Meditation - Tuesdays 12noon - 1pm

“Be still and know that I am God.”

We live in an age of distraction, where our wandering minds can miss a lot. The richness of experience, the exquisite beauty of the universe, the need of someone in pain, even the voice of God can get lost in the noise of our unfocused thoughts. Practising mindfulness meditation renews both our minds and our spirits. It provides a centredness that helps us listen to God. It also trains us over time to release all the distracting thoughts that occur to us during the average day and refocus on what matters.

Offered on Tuesdays, in two twenty minute lunchtime sessions, (12-12.20pm, 12.30-12.50pm) led by Susan Karoly. Bring your lunch, and share a time of fellowship from 1pm.

We have arranged two meetings to allow people to come along and discuss and comment upon the most recent changes and impact and offer suggestions.

We look forward to an open and participative interaction with constructive comments as we consider the way forward. The meeting will be informal and chaired by Ken Coutts of People and Culture Committee.
