Hymn Fest at St Andrew's Berwick - Sunday 4 June 2pm

St Andrew's Uniting Church at 105 High Street in Berwick is holding a 'Hymn Fest' Hymn Singing afternoon on Sunday 4th June from 2.00pm, in celebration of their 160th Anniversary this year. Come for a fun filled musical afternoon and sing your favourite hymns both old and new with performances and accompaniment by choir, pipe organ and 'Journey Bound' band. Fundraiser $5 per head and includes afternoon tea.

All welcome. Any enquiries please contact Matthew Clark on 0437 397 369.

Next Issue of NewView

In June we celebrate the establishment of the Uniting Church, an occasion which necessitated acceptance of various changes. Hence, we have chosen 'acceptance' as our theme for the next issue of NewView. Since acceptance involves change, does this acceptance challenge our core beliefs or does it only disturb our familiar traditions and practices? When should we accept, or not accept, change? Will our acceptance harm others? Does our acceptance require a change of attitude or behaviour? When we decide to accept a difficult change, what strategies are of positive assistance to that acceptance?

Your articles, poems, anecdotes or ideas on this theme are welcomed, as are reports, stories or photos of recent events which help to keep us informed about our many members and activities at GWUC and the wider church. Contributions can be sent to popesr@aapt.net.au or handed in to the office, by Tuesday June 13.

With Love to the World

The new issue is now available - for those who subscribe please collect your copy from the letter rack.
