Today we go to China and take a look at the incredible Terracotta Warriors. Made around 200BC they remained undiscovered until 1974 when a farmer digging a well found numerous pieces he thought would be of interest to a friend at university. It snowballed from there and to date they have found over 8000 warriors plus horses and armour. Today it is a major tourist attraction.

Enquiries: Bill Norquay 9884 4800.

Roster Vacancies

The Greeting Volunteers greet people at the outside doors as they arrive on Sunday morning. We are currently short of volunteers, particularly for the 11am service. If you like to be greeted, please consider joining the roster. The Vestry Volunteers assist the minister and lead the "prayers of the people". Lots of resources are available. This is the prime opportunity at Glen Waverley for lay people to share in leading worship.

Both of these rosters use "rolling allocation", so that you can choose how often you are rostered, select your own dates and mark yourself as unavailable for particular weeks.

For further information, please contact David Morgan or the church office or see <http://wiki.gwuc.org.au/gwuc/ChurchRosters>.
