Delivery of Postcards for Easter Services - Volunteers Needed

To promote our Easter Services in the community, we need about 10 people to letterbox-drop postcards to houses in areas around the church. If you can help to deliver the postcards by Sunday 25 March, please take a bundle of postcards (about 200), a delivery area map and an instructions sheet from the table in the foyer and write your name on the list. Your help would be much appreciated.

A request - car parking

Our church is a very busy place during the week, and we have very limited car parking.

If you are attending a GWUC function or activity on site, and you can find a space, please feel encouraged to use the car park. If you only have a short stay in mind, please consider the multi-level car park opposite.

However, if you need to use the car park for an extended stay and you are not attending a GWUC activity, please ensure you seek clearance from the Office Manager before leaving your vehicle. We may have a funeral on that day or other special event, where they have negotiated additional or specific parking. To leave your car without first checking with the Office can cause us embarrassment and inconvenience.

Thank you.

Warren Greenwood - Property Chairperson.

Today's Flowers in the church

Today's thoughtful flowers are given by Andrew Hosking in loving memory of Bill and Lois Hosking.

Arranged by: Anna Yeo

Today - Sunday 18 March - 5.30 Worship

Our 5.30 service today will be having a guest speaker and we thought you might be interested.

In the lead up to Easter we thought it would be good to reflect on the last supper, the passover, and Celebrate Messiah are coming to share.

The 'Messiah in the Passover Banquet' provides an informal, relaxed and enjoyable way to enhance the Christian understanding of the Last Supper, giving the Christian a deeper appreciation for the intimate connection between the Old and New Testaments.

This is an interactive presentation involving all the senses. Our speaker will explain ancient and modern Jewish customs. We will be taking up an offering for the ongoing work of Celebrate Messiah at the service.
