Today's Flowers in the church

Arranged by Barbara Thompson.

Today - Combined Anniversary Service

Join us today for our Anniversary Service at 10am. Following the service there will be a communal feast and everyone is invited to bring a plate to share. To ensure we have a variety of sweet and savoury, Surnames A-L are asked to bring a sweet and Surnames M-Z a savoury. Soup will be provided to start. Please don't forget to bring your plate of food along.

Updating Neil's Health

Neil came home from hospital on Monday. He is finding it much easier to sleep now. Any pain is controlled by Panadol. Neil is resting, recovering and doing 2 short walks daily. He expects to start Cardiac Rehab in about 10 days.

Neil and Lynn feel very supported by our congregation. They want to thank everyone who has sent messages, drawings, hugtopus notes, cards, food or flowers, and everyone who has prayed for them.

Neil is open to visits from Monday 25 June. So that you come when Neil is awake and not at a medical appointment it is best to ring the manse on 9561 3031 to make a time to visit.

Safe Church Training - Today (24 June), 26 June or 28 June.

As part of our child protection policy, all designated leaders and those who may interact with children in the congregation are required to undertake safe church training every two years, as well as having a Working with Children Check. We have scheduled three more sessions in the last week of June, namely today, Sunday June 24 at 2pm, Tuesday June 26 at 2pm, and Thursday June 28 at 7:30pm. Other members are welcome to attend. Prior notice to David Morgan or Dorothy Lockhart would be appreciated but is not essential.

Drivers for Leisure Time - Urgent

Leisure Time is urgently looking for more drivers to transport guests to and from Leisure Time on Mondays. If you are able to assist please contact Bobbie Rooks or the Church Office.
