COVID Communications Page

The COVID Communications Page provides a resource for people isolated by the COVID-19 pandemic. Recognising that many of us now have much more time on our hands than previously, the Communications Committee thought that some interesting clips that can be found on-line could be shared via the wiki.

Take in a virtual tour of exhibitions at The Louvre in Paris, The Guggenheim in New York or the National Gallery of Victoria. Share an evening with the MSO, an Andrew Lloyd Webber musical or maybe an opera. There is much to find!

As this is a wiki page, you can add to the list yourself - if you found something interesting - others may like it also! You will need to be logged in to add entries.

Thanks to GOMERS who started the list for us! Please enjoy!
