Church Council News

Council recently adopted the following statements about worship, reopening the church and meeting in homes.

As we are one congregation, we will not recommence worship until government, Synod and Presbytery advice make it possible for all services to begin.

Having considered the recent changes to regulations from government, and advice from Synod, Church Council have agreed that services will continue online throughout July.

Given the current social distancing requirements relating to church buildings, no meetings will be held at the church during this time. The complex remains closed.

While it may be legal for people to meet in homes, that does not mean that it is advisable. Certainly no member should be pressured to attend. Whether to attend should be a free and considered decision of each member, considering their own health, exposure and vulnerability. Church Council cannot endorse such meetings as church groups.

Coaching @ GWUC Tennis Club

With the easing of some COVID-19 restrictions, it is now safe to return to playing on-court tennis, with the appropriate safeguards in place. Jon Herrmann (coach) is offering a free "Come and Try" tennis lesson. Please contact Jon for more details: 0402 159 165 or jon.herrmann@hotmail.com.
