Holy Communion - Sunday 13 September

In accordance with UCA Assembly guidelines for live streaming of communion the Church Council have approved communion to be celebrated as part of the live stream services. The next communion service will be held on Sunday 13 September. Some may prefer not to have communion at home as part of the service and that choice is respected. For those wishing to share in communion please have ready a small amount of bread (enough for those present) and some juice or water or appropriate drink so that you are ready to share in communion together as an online community of faithful disciples of Jesus.

Check-In Thursday with Neil - Thursday 10 September @ 10am

Neil is inviting members of the church to 'Check-In' on Thursday mornings for a casual 40 min small group chat on Zoom. This week's theme is: My garden... To participate please email Neil on revneilpeters@gmail.com and he will send you the invitation link. Check-In with Neil and he can check-in with you!

A message from John & Rona Pooley

John and Rona Pooley wish they had words to express appreciation to our Church family for all the wonderful and kind contacts we have received throughout John's illness. But there simply are no words we can write here to acknowledge the many expressions of concern and wishes that we have received.

We are overwhelmed.

Thank you.

Share Sunday Appeal 2020

Rev. Gavin Blakemore's message on Sunday 23 August gave us an insight into youth homelessness - on any given night, 6,000 young Victorians are homeless. Online donations to support the work of Uniting in this area can be made at:

Church Council News

As we are one congregation, we will not recommence worship until government, Synod and Presbytery advice make it possible for all services to begin. Having considered the regulations from government, and advice from Synod, Church Council have agreed that services will continue online throughout September. Due to current social distancing requirements relating to church buildings, no meetings will be held at the church during this time. The complex remains closed.
