Today's Flowers

have been arranged by
Gael O'Brien

Wearing a yellow sunflower

You might see someone in the church foyer wearing a yellow sunflower. The person is wearing a sunflower so they are recognisable and their role is to be a "welcomer" for our church. They will particularly be on the look-out for and engage with people who are new to our church or visiting our church. If you are new or visiting or want to know something, speak to anyone, but know that the person with the sunflower will be very pleased to talk with you. However, we do encourage the whole congregation to be welcoming of people at our church.

Light Luncheon

A light luncheon will be held in the Fellowship Area following the 11am service today - Sunday 5 June. All are welcome.
